Teacher Biographies:

Alexandra Langstaff – Alexandra's background in early childhood and elementary education, modern dance, and the ski industry have all contributed in the design of her innovative dance programs. She works with both children and adults creating movement and dance while exploring physical language, and encouraging spontaneous creative thinking and personal growth.

Barbara Childs - Barbara Childs graduated with honors from Johnson State College with a B.A. in Art/Education and with honors from Southern Vermont College with an A.S in Human Services. She has 6 years experience teaching art on the elementary level and is currently teaching at Currier Memorial School in Danby, Vermont and at Readsboro Elementary school.

Cherie Thompson – Cherie has a Masters in Elementary Education and has taught in area schools for more than 15 years. She was The Dorset School art teacher during the 2010-2011 school year and is passionate about helping children to develop their abilities, learn to express themselves and create art they can feel proud of.

Christine Mix – Christine has a BA in Fine Art and is an artist and illustrator from Londonderry, VT. She illustrated her first children's book, Write Out of the Oven!, in 2005 and since then, her work has appeared in a number of other books and periodicals. Christine's artwork has also been exhibited in a number of galleries in Vermont; including SVAC.

Irene Cole – Irene holds a degree in Advertising Design from the Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC and a BS degree in Painting from Skidmore College. She is an artist member at SVAC and recently had a solo exhibition there this past Spring. Irene is passionate about art, the creative process and enjoys passing on this love to children. You can see her work at Gallery 47 located in Manchester Center.

Judith Cohen – Judith is a critically acclaimed actress who has appeared in numerous television, film, theatre, and concert venues. She was a leading member of the award winning NY company of the improvisational show, The Proposition.

Stacy Gates – Stacy is an award winning artist in both quilting and jewelry design and previous had her own line of children's clothing. While she enjoys learning and working in a variety of mediums, her favorite aspect of them is sharing her knowledge with others. She loves teaching and is fortunate enough to have the position of Children's Education and Outreach Coordinator at SVAC.
