

This scene is called a waterscape. It means that the main subject of the painting is about water.

"Off Mohegan," Frederick Judd Waugh, 1920, Oil on Canvas

What time of day do you think it is here?

Think of a time when you saw a body of water (it could be a lake, a pond, the ocean, a pool). What colors did you see?

